

DIRECTORY OF MIGRANT ORGANISATIONS & SUPPORT GROUPS IN DUBLIN

Acknowledgement

To develop a comprehensive directory that captures migrant organisations and support groups at any point in time can be a really difficult task. This is due to the transitory nature of members and the voluntary nature of migrant groups.

We have in this publication attempted to give an up to date directory of migrant organisations and support groups, including their contacts in Dublin, Ireland.

We hope this would enhance support services delivery, integration and the engagement of migrants with relevant stakeholders.

At the time of compilation, we took time to explore and painstakingly work to represent a true position of such organisations. In the process hard-copy prints, online materials and support organisations played a significant part to ensure that as many organisations as possible were listed.

Another big thank you to all New Communities Partnership (NCP) network members in Dublin who assisted in no small measure to ensuring we have the right contacts and area of activities!

I hope that users including service providers, service users and migrants will find this directory useful.

I would like to use this opportunity to thank all people and organisations that made this work possible, especially volunteers and NCP staff – Daud A. Gilingil, Edward Boakye, Jennifer Curtis and Gwen Mills. On behalf of New Communities Partnership (NCP) a big thank you.

Reginald Okoflex Inya
